

Create a trophy room in your heart. Each time you experience a victory, place a memory on the shelf. Before you face a challenge, take a quick tour of God's accomplishments. Look at all the paychecks He has provided, all the blessings He has given, all the prayers He has answered.

Imitate the shepherd boy David. Before he fought Goliath, he remembered how God had helped him kill a lion and a bear. He faced the future by revisiting the past. Don't go to Jericho until you have remembered Jordan.

“Obedience, ” wrote C.S. Lewis,
“is the key to all doors.”

Don't think for a second that you can heed the wrong voice, make the wrong choice, and escape the consequences. Obedience leads to blessing. Disobedience leads to trouble.

Remember who you are; you are God's child. You've been bought by the precious blood of Christ. You are indwelled by the Spirit of the living God. You are being equipped for an eternal assignment that will empower you to live in the very presence of God. You have been set apart for a holy calling. You are His.

Worry is momentary atheism crying out for correction by trust in a good and sovereign God.

Faith means believing that God is good and that even if we can't see it today, one day we will look back and see clearly His goodness and kindness.
