

Faith is ever challenging the status quo where evil reigns, where pain and sickness prevail, where hatred and hellishness rule or where human failure breeds confusion. As we learn to live under the Holy Spirit's rule, we will be able to take a bold, confrontive stance against all in opposition to that rule whether of demonic, fleshly or earthly nature.

Walking the Path of Prayer

Jack Hayford

God at times permits tragedies. He permits the ground to grow dry and stalks to grow bare. He allows Satan to unleash mayhem.

But he doesn't allow Satan to triumph.

Romans 8:28: "And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose."

God promises to render beauty out of "all things," not "each thing." The isolated events may be evil, but the ultimate culmination is good.
