

We are kindling a fire. In this cold world full of hatred and selfishness our little blaze may seem to be unavailing, but we must keep our fire burning.

We must keep sounding the alarm to those who are in spiritual danger

Hope For Each Day
Billy Graham

Social justice is the mission of reordering society to create more equitable power relationships. Those who resist social justice are practicing "hate," and cannot be reasoned with or in any way tolerated, only conquered.

Christians cannot endorse any form of social justice that denies Biblical teaching.

Live Not By Lies

Rod Dreher

Faithful Christians must work for justice, but only in the context of fidelity to the full Christian moral and theological vision. Any “social” justice that implies that the God of the Bible is an enemy of man and His happiness is fraudulent must be rejected.
