

Will we let the storm refine us or define us? Will we commit to trusting God through it or will we sink? The storms we navigate will change us. We can get bitter, or we can be made stronger. We can close our heart to people or open it wide. We can look back and wish for something different, or we can look ahead and trust God will meet us there.

Find Your Brave
Holly Wagner

The blood of Jesus is your victory. He has redeemed you by His blood from sin's penalty and Satan's tyranny. You are no longer under condemnation, and Satan can bring no accusation. Your victory is secured by the blood of Calvary. Your spiritual position is your elevated and fortified position "in Christ".

The Weapons of Our Warfare

Phil Hopper

The Law is for the self-righteous, to humble their pride: the gospel is for the lost, to remove their despair.

All of Grace
(Believer's Web, March 2003)
Charles Spurgeon

Our ultimate goal is not to convince anyone that the Bible is credible. Jesus didn't say to go into all the world and try to convince them that the strange stories in the Bible are true. He said to "go into all the world and preach the gospel." The gospel is the power of God to salvation. The gospel takes the sword to the heart.

Faith is for Weak People
