

What are our weapons? Prayer, worship, and Scripture. When we pray, we engage the power of God against the devil. When we worship, we do what Satan himself did not do: we place God on the throne. When we pick up the sword of Scripture, we do what Jesus did in the wilderness. He responded to Satan by proclaiming truth. And since Satan has a severe allergy to truth, he left Jesus alone.

Unshakable Hope

Max Lucado

Our enemy weakens your walls of absolute truth by getting you to doubt the Word of God and the character of God. He wants to get you to doubt what God has said or who God is. When you begin to doubt the Word of God or the goodness of God, your defenses are weakened.

Phil Hopper

In our fight with the enemy, we must hold the high ground of our mind and emotions at all cost. If you do not take your thoughts captive, your thoughts will eventually take you captive, and that is right where the enemy wants you.

Freedom Declaration

Your faith will no longer be stuck in place. It will be active and dynamic, growing and maturing to produce the fruit of the Spirit.

You will experience a satisfaction you've never known as you live out your God-given purpose and serve others with your unique talents and through divinely appointed opportunities.

Your hunger to know God and your thirst for Living Water will be satisfied each day as you grow closer to Christ and your faith strengthens.

Your relationships will not be stuck anymore. You will experience the ability to forgive others and ask for their forgiveness.

You will demonstrate God's grace and mercy and reflect his glory in all you say and do.

Your future will not be stuck. God has a hope and a purpose for you, and it's no accident that you are exactly where you are. No matter how bleak or barren your circumstances, God can help you pull up your anchor and get you moving through the storm. He will be faithful to keep his promises and make sure you get where you're supposed to be.
