

If Jesus calls the Holy Spirit the Spirit of truth, what happens to truth without Him?

It is by His leading, His power, and His presence that we first discern truth from error. There is a Spirit of Truth and there is a spirit of error. You know the difference by the indwelling Holy Spirit.

Vessels of Fire and Glory

Mario Murillo

The Holy Spirit is amassing an army.
The first signs are frustration and agitation. Praying people will feel out of sorts. Their turmoil will lead to an experience in the glory of God.

It begins with a renewed relationship with the Holy Spirit and greater intimacy with Christ. You will advance to an understanding of flowing in true signs and wonders and not the sad emotional imitations. From there you will find your assignment in God's war to save America. Your task will overtake you with blazing clarity.
