

Jesus willingly laid down His life on the cross to rescue you from sin and from death. Now a new life is available the moment you believe in Him and receive His gift of salvation.

This means you can have Peace where anxiety would otherwise define you, Freedom from shame where guilt would define you,
Freedom from sin where it would enslave you,
An identity of spiritual holiness,
Adoption into the family of God instead of living alone, and Assurance you are loved.

Jesus Loves Me
John Dickerson

God doesn't look on your brokenness with a detached sense of distance. He loves you. You are glorious to Him, even with all your flaws. He has invested in you. He has reached out to you. He sees who you will become in Christ. He is rehabilitating you. He is restoring you. He is re-creating you. He is renewing you.

Jesus Loves Me
John Dickerson

Most people are not focused on God—they are trying to figure out life, wondering how they are going to pay the bills, or even nursing a broken heart.

However, when people begin to worship and change their focus, something happens...the atmosphere begins to change and shift. As people are lifted out of their problems in their minds, their moods lighten. The sadness they first carried into the sanctuary is melted away. As the congregation magnifies Jesus through worship, the heavy atmosphere that once permeated the building is now replaced with joy, unity, and peace.
