

When any church can be brought to the place where they will recognize their need of the Holy Spirit and they take their eyes off from all men, and surrender absolutely to the Holy Spirit's control, and give themselves to much prayer for His outpouring, and present themselves as His agents, having stored the Word of God in their heads and hearts, then look to the Holy Spirit to give it power as it falls from their lips. A mighty revival in the power of the Holy Ghost is inevitable.

The Holy Spirit in Revival

R. A. Torrey

Worship invites the very power and presence of God to be manifested in the presence of the worshiper or worshiping group. This is when revival comes to a church.

Rivers of Revival

Neil Anderson & Elmer Towns

1. God has provided worship as a means of entry to our rejoicing in the presence of the Ultimate Reality.
2. Worship introduces dimensions of possibility in every life that transcends our sin and self-imposed limitations as we welcome the Transcendent One.
3. Worshiping God brings the highest sense of dignity humanity can know, for the regal nature of His Majesty begins to flow downward and inward.

Worship His Majesty

Jack Hayford

Christians understand that human life is not a random biological existence, evolved from primordial goo, scratching out a pointless eighty-year existence that abruptly ends and is gone. For the Christian, life is transcendent, formed and given purpose by a benevolent Creator, an eternal, enduring existence that explodes with meaning, value, and possibilities.

The life we experience now is not our only reality or our final destination. Earthly life and time are merely a staging ground for something better, like the dress rehearsal for a magnificent play that will open soon.

Before You Quit
Doug Gehman